As relationships within the book are tested, we witness tensions rise, echoing broader ideas about interpersonal boundaries. Through these interactions, Who Would Win asks important questions: How do we define ourselves in relation to others? What happens when belief meets doubt? Can healing be truly achieved, or is it forever in progress? These inquiries are not answered definitively but are instead woven into the fabric of the story, inviting us to bring our own experiences to bear on what Who Would Win has to say.

Approaching the story's apex, Who Would Win brings together its narrative arcs, where the personal stakes of the characters collide with the broader themes the book has steadily constructed. The pacing of this section is exquisitely timed, allowing the emotional weight to accumulate powerfully. There is a narrative electricity that undercurrents the prose, created not by external drama, but by the characters' internal shifts. In Who Would Win, the emotional crescendo is not just about resolution—its about reframing the journey. What makes Who Would Win so resonant here is its refusal to offer easy answers.
